We prefer buying our Beef from the FARMERS OF MACON COUNTY rather than from Dressed Beef firms in St. Louis or Chicago. Believing that it is QUALITY rather than quantity that the public desire, we shall continue to sell only the best of Meats, procured from animals raised and matured on Macon county farms, and respectfully ask for a continuance of your patronage, heretofore so liberally bestowed.

Bottling Stone and Walks.

Martin's process for making artificial stone is unsurpassed for sidewalks, office and basement floors, engine rooms, plan and ornamental building stone, etc., for all uses stone is adapted for. Price of building stone of any ornamental design will be furnished at less than half cost of natural stone. This stone is made from pure gravel sand and Portland cement, the cleanest of material and not subject to decay.

If you are going to build or improve your property where either brick or natural stone is required let me know what your requirements are. A satisfactory price is assured.

FULL OF YEARS

And Honor Dewon George Wood Went to His Eternal Home.

George Wood was born in Dunstable, Eng., March 31, 1808, immigrated to this country in 1817, and to this state in 1836, settling in Springfield. In 1855 he came to Decatur and has resided here ever since. He has been a faithful and consistent member of the Baptist church since he was 18 years of age, and for 35 years has been a deacon and active worker in the church in this city. He was a quiet, faithful man, a good husband, tender parent and excellent citizen, whose death is mourned sincerely. He was the father of nine children, four daughters and five sons. The surviving children are George, of Union, Ill.; Edward, Howard, Judson, Henry and Mrs. Teasdale, who reside in Decatur; Mrs. Dr. E. H. E. Jamison, of Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. John H. Puglisi, of Union, N. J. Mrs. Dr. Alexander Pollock died in Decatur in 1892.

The funeral ceremony will be held at the Baptist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Voshburgh officiating. The casket will not be opened at the church, and those who wish to obtain a last look at the dead friend should call at the residence on West Macou street to-day between 9 a. m. and 1 p. m.

OUR NEW LEVER.

An Important Addition to The Review A Good Company That Inaugurates a Mechanical Department.

The people of Decatur and Macon county do not need to be told of the remarkable success that The Review has attained within the last 18 months since the present management took charge. It is common talk, that The Review is and has been for some time past the best newspaper Decatur has had, that it is the only paper not afraid to express its opinion, that politically it has endeared itself to the party to which it is proud to owe allegiance and has made itself feared and respected by its adversaries, gone without saying. That the people, whose champion The Review has proven to be on many different occasions have learned to show their appreciation by enrolling their names on the subscription books, has been common talk these many months.

The rapidly and constantly increasing circulation has for some time past demanded increased press facilities, and 60 days ago a contract was made with the Babcock Press Manufacturing company, of New London, Conn., for the building of a new press of their celebrated "Standard" pattern, the work to be rushed through as rapidly as possible. The new press arrived in the city last week, and a force of skilled mechanics, under the direction of William Lender, of the Babcock factory, have been engaged for three days past in erecting this machine, which has so justly been termed "the lever that moves the world."

This morning The Review is printed on the new press for the first time. The new machine is the highest and most perfect type of the single cylinder printing press and exhibits in a wonderful degree, the sources of modern mechanical skill and in genuinity. Its speed is from 1,500 to 2,000 perfect papers an hour and it is fitted as well for the highest class of book and cataloge work as for ordinary newspaper printing.

Without any invidious comparisons it can be said that it is by all odds the finest, most complete and most costly printing machine ever brought to Decatur, and now that this welcome addition has been made to our press facilities, The Review proposes to go right ahead with the work of still further increasing its sphere of usefulness by adding the ever welcome names of new subscribers to our list.

It will be a few days yet before the new press will be running with the high degree of perfection of which it is capable, but visitors will be welcome at our press room any time, and we can assure them that a visit will be well worth the trouble.

The Review intends to retain her position at the head of the procession, and with this new lever progress in the future will be even more rapid than in the past.

LATHAM ALMOST BURNED OUT

A Bad Fire Started in a Mysterious Manner

Latham had a bad fire about two o'clock this morning. The principal part of the business portion of the town was destroyed, making a loss of nearly $8000. Shortly after the hour named, Stanley, the restaurant keeper, discovered that Alexander Horn's hardware store was on fire. He aroused the town and the citizens went to work, but they could do nothing more than save three buildings across the street. They had a hand engine and a good well. The row in which the fire was burned and the loss was about as follows:

C. A. Holbrook, drug store, loss $1,000. The building belonged to James B. Gaskay.

James A. Allison, barber shop, loss, $100. Stanley's restaurant, loss on stock and household goods, $500. The building belongs to Lemuel Parish.

Alexander Hora, hardware store and implement warehouse, loss $1,000. The building belonged to J. D. Simpson.

The only insurance was on the hardware stock and the Gasaway building. How the fire started is a great mystery. It began in a corner between the implement warehouse and the hardware store. There was no fire yesterday in either building. A man named Buskirk fell off a roof and was badly hurt.
